HEALTH SAVINGS ACCOUNT CUSTODIAL AGREEMENT

FORM 5305-C UNDER SECTION 223 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

INTRODUCTION

The Account Owner named on the Health Savings Account Application ("Account Owner," and also referred to herein using pronouns such as "you" and "your") is establishing this Health Savings Account ("HSA" or "Custodial Account" or the "Account") exclusively for the purpose of paying or reimbursing Qualified Medical Expenses of the Account Owner, his or her spouse, and Dependents. The Account is being opened with Avidia Health, a division of Avidia Bank ("Custodian," and also referred to herein using pronouns such as "we," "us" and "our"). The Account Owner has assigned to this Custodial Account the funds described related to their Health Savings Account. For married persons, each spouse who is eligible to open an HSA and wants to contribute to an HSA must establish his or her own account. The identifying number for an HSA will be the Account Owner's individual HSA account number.

As Custodian for the Account, we will cause the Account Owner's funds to be placed into a deposit account (the "Deposit Account") at a depository institution (the "Depository") selected by us in our sole discretion whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). The Depository may be Avidia Bank or another FDIC insured depository institution.

If we place the Account Owner's funds with a Depository other than Avidia Bank, the Deposit Account will be recorded on the records of the Depository in our name as Custodian for you in a manner that will permit the Deposit Account to be FDIC insured to the same extent as if you held it directly with the Depository. You will receive periodic Account statements that will reflect your ownership of your HSA funds held in the Deposit Account. You should retain the Account statement(s) for your records.

While we are acting as the Custodian for your Account, all contributions to your HSA (made by you, your employer, a family member or any other person) will be made to us, and we will cause the funds to be deposited to the Deposit Account. We will cause funds to be disbursed from the Deposit Account pursuant to this Health Savings Account Custodial Agreement. You may not transfer the Deposit Account directly to another depository institution.

At your election, you may dismiss us as Custodian in accordance with Article XII, below, and appoint a successor custodian or trustee authorized to act as such in relation to HSAs under the Code. As soon as is practicable following written notice of the appointment of such a successor custodian or trustee, we will cause the funds in the Deposit Account to be transferred the successor custodian or trustee.

ACCOUNT OWNER REPRESENTATIONS OF ELIGIBILITY

The Account Owner represents that, unless this Account is used solely to make Rollover or Transfer Contributions as defined below, he or she is eligible to contribute to this HSA; specifically, that he or she: (1) is covered under a High Deductible Health Plan ("HDHP"); (2) is not also covered by any other health plan that is not an HDHP (with certain exceptions described herein for plans providing preventive care and limited types of permitted insurance and permitted coverage); (3) is not enrolled in Medicare; and (4) cannot be claimed as a Dependent on another person's tax return. Avidia Bank has no obligation to verify that any applicant for an Account is eligible to establish an HSA under applicable laws and regulations.

PURPOSE OF FORM 5305-C

IRS Form 5305-C, on which this section of the Health Savings Account Custodial Agreement is based, is a model custodial account agreement that has been approved by the IRS, with permissible additional provisions that may be agreed to between the Custodian and Account Owner. The model agreement provisions provided by the IRS as well as the additional provisions added by Avidia Bank are contained within this Agreement. Also, further provisions applicable to the HSA, including certain disclosures required by various banking laws and regulations. An HSA is established subject to the acknowledgment of this Agreement. The agreement can be acknowledged at any time during the tax year. An HSA must be created in the United States for the exclusive benefit of the Account Owner.

Do not file Form 5305-C or any part of this Agreement with the IRS. Instead, keep the Agreement with your records.

AGREEMENT

The Account Owner and the Custodian make the following Agreement:

ARTICLE I

1. The Custodian will accept additional contributions for the tax year made by the Account Owner or on behalf of the Account Owner (by an employer, family member or any other person). No contributions will be knowingly accepted by the Custodian for any Account Owner that exceed the maximum amount for Family Coverage plus the catch-up contribution.
2. Contributions for any tax year may be made at any time before the deadline for filing the Account Owner's federal income tax return for that year (without extensions).
3. Rollover or Transfer Contributions from an HSA or an Archer MSA (unless prohibited under this Agreement) need not be in cash and are not subject to the maximum annual contribution limit set forth in Article II.
4. Qualified HSA funding distributions from an individual retirement account ("IRA") must be completed in a trustee-to-trustee transfer and are subject to the maximum annual contribution limit set forth in Article II.

ARTICLE II

1. For calendar year 2020, the maximum annual contribution limit for an Account Owner with Self-Only Coverage is $3,550, and for 2021, it is $3,600. For calendar year 2020, the maximum annual contribution limit for an Account Owner with Family Coverage is $7,100, and for 2021, it is $7,200. These limits are subject to cost-of-living adjustments after 2021.
2. Contributions to Archer MSAs or other HSAs count toward the maximum annual contribution limit to this HSA.
3. For calendar year 2020 and later years, an additional $1,000 catch-up contribution may be made for an Account Owner who is at least age 55 or older and not enrolled in Medicare.
4. Contributions in excess of the maximum annual contribution limit are subject to an excise tax. However, the catch-up contributions are not subject to an excise tax.

ARTICLE III

It is the responsibility of the Account Owner to determine whether contributions to this HSA have exceeded the maximum annual contribution limit described in Article II. If contributions to this HSA exceed the maximum annual contribution limit, the Account Owner shall notify the Custodian that there exist excess contributions to the HSA. It is the responsibility of the Account Owner to request the withdrawal of the excess contributions and any net income attributable to such excess contributions.

ARTICLE IV

The Account Owner's interest in the balance in this custodial account is non-forfeitable.

ARTICLE V

1. No part of the custodial funds in this Account may be invested in life insurance contracts or in collectibles as defined in Section 408(m) of the Code.
2. The assets of this Account may not be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.
3. Neither the Account Owner nor the Custodian will engage in any prohibited transaction with respect to this Account (such as borrowing or pledging the Account or engaging in any other prohibited transaction as defined in Section 4975 of the Code).

ARTICLE VI

1. Distribution of funds from this HSA may be made upon the direction of the Account Owner.
2. Distributions from this HSA that are used exclusively to pay or reimburse Qualified Medical Expenses of the Account Owner, his or her spouse, or Dependents are tax-free. However, distributions that are not used for Qualified Medical Expenses are included in the Account Owner's gross income and are subject to an additional 20 percent tax on that amount. The additional 20 percent tax does not apply if the distribution is made after the Account Owner's death, disability, or reaching age 65.
3. The Custodian is not required to determine whether the distribution is for the payment or reimbursement of Qualified Medical Expenses. Only the Account Owner is responsible for substantiating that the distribution is for Qualified Medical Expenses and must maintain records sufficient to show, if required, that the distribution is tax-free.

ARTICLE VII

1. If the Account Owner dies before the entire interest in the Account is distributed, the entire Account will be disposed of as follows:
2. If the Beneficiary is the Account Owner's spouse, the HSA will become the spouse's HSA as of the date of death. If the Beneficiary is not the Account Owner's spouse, the HSA will cease to be an HSA as of the date of death. If the Beneficiary is the Account Owner's estate, the fair market value of the Account as of the date of death is taxable on the Account Owner's final return. For other Beneficiaries, the fair market value of the Account is taxable to that person in the tax year that includes such date.

ARTICLE VIII

1. The Account Owner agrees to provide the Custodian with information necessary for the Custodian to prepare any report or return required by the IRS.
2. The Custodian agrees to prepare and submit any report or return as prescribed by the IRS.

ARTICLE IX

Notwithstanding any other Article that may be added or incorporated in this Agreement, the provisions of Articles I through VIII and this sentence are controlling. Any additional Article or provision in this Agreement that is inconsistent with Section 223 of the Code or IRS published guidance will be void.

ARTICLE X

This Agreement will be amended from time to time to comply with the provisions of the Code or IRS published guidance. Other amendments may be made in accordance with Article XIV.

ARTICLE XI

Except as hereinafter provided, the Account Owner hereby directs the Custodian to invest contributions to the Account in an interest-bearing deposit account established on behalf of the Account Owner with a bank or similar depository institution that: (a) is established pursuant to a charter granted by a federal or state banking authority within the United States; (b) is an FDIC insured institution; and (c) is Well Capitalized (as that term is defined by the FDIC, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, as applicable) at the time the deposit account is established.

Subject to this Agreement, the Account Owner, may enroll in a “Self-Directed” Investment feature allowing them to transfer funds from their HSA and invest those funds within a group of mutual funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. As such, those funds transferred into a non-FDIC-insured mutual fund are subject to the restrictions as well as the terms and conditions provided to the Account Owner prior to their enrollment within the Investment feature. MUTUAL FUND INVESTMENTS ARE NOT FDIC- INSURED, MAY LOSE VALUE, AND HAVE NO BANK GUARANTEE. The Account Owner shall have exclusive responsibility for and control over the investment of assets. The Custodian shall have no discretion to direct any funds allocated from the HSA to the investment option, and the Custodian shall not provide the Account Owner with investment advice or offer any opinion to the Account Owner with respect to the value or suitability of any investment or any purchase or sale of securities.

As soon as is practicable following written notice of this appointment, the Custodian shall transfer all assets and appropriate records of the Account to the successor custodian or trustee.
4. Avidia Bank shall not be liable for any actions or failures to act on the part of any successor custodian or trustee, nor for any tax consequences the Account Owner may incur resulting from any transfer or distribution.

ARTICLE XIII

1. The Custodian shall receive and invest contributions, and shall hold and distribute assets and investments of the Account pursuant to the directions of the Account Owner. The Custodian shall keep records of its administration of the Account, and of all investments, receipts of funds, and disbursements and other transactions involving the Account.
2. The Custodian shall furnish a report to the Account Owner concerning the status of the Account at least once annually, or more often if required by law. The Account Owner agrees that these reports will be sufficient to comply with the rules and regulations regarding confirmation requirements for securities transactions, including transactions in mutual funds, and directs the Custodian not to send notification of each individual transaction. The Account Owner has been informed that the Account Owner has the right to receive individual confirmations for each securities transaction at no additional cost to the Account Owner, and he or she hereby waives that right and authorizes the Custodian to instead provide information on securities transactions in periodic account statements for the period involved in the form regularly used by the Custodian for such statements.
3. The Custodian shall have no responsibility for determining the tax effect of contributions to the Account by, or on behalf of, the Account Owner. Likewise, the Custodian shall have no responsibility for determining the tax effect of distributions from the Account to, or on behalf of, the Account Owner.

 - 5.1. to pay any tax attributable to any asset of the Account or any benefit or distribution paid from the Account; prior to release of any asset or distribution from the Account, the Custodian may require a release or similar document from the applicable taxing authority in order to protect itself from possible tax liability;
 - 5.2. to employ suitable agents and counsel;
 - 5.3. to perform any and all acts it deems necessary to effect the proper management of the Account; and
 - 5.4. to begin, maintain, or defend any litigation necessary in connection with the administration of the Account, but the Custodian shall not be required to do so unless fully indemnified to its satisfaction.

6. The Custodian may resign and terminate this Agreement at any time upon 30 days written notice to the Account Owner and shall turn over to the successor custodian or trustee all assets and appropriate records of the Account. The Custodian shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any successor custodian or trustee. If the Account Owner does not name a successor custodian or trustee within 30 days after written notice of the Custodian's resignation, the Custodian may appoint a successor custodian for the Account.
7. After the Custodian has transferred the assets of the Account in connection with the termination of the Account, including any reserve as provided in this Article XIII or in Article XII, it shall be relieved of all further liability with respect to the Account.
8. The Custodian shall have the right, power and authority to do each and every act and thing and to enter into and carry out each and every agreement with respect to the Account which may be necessary or advisable to discharge its responsibilities under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

1. This HSA Custodial Agreement includes and is intended to be the Internal Revenue Service's model custodial account agreement (IRS Form 5305-C). Certain additions have been made in accordance with Article XI of the model agreement and have been drafted with the intention that they comply with the provisions of Section 223 of the Code and any regulations thereunder. However, the tax consequences of the establishment of an Account under this Agreement, and the contributions to and distributions from the Account, are the responsibility of the Account Owner and the Account Owner's tax and legal advisors.
2. The Custodian shall have the right to amend or modify this Agreement at any time, including retroactively, to comply with the requirements of the Code and applicable law. The Custodian will provide written notice to the Account Owner of any such amendment. Any other material amendments shall require the Account Owner's consent, by action or no action, and will be preceded by at least 30 days' advanced written notice to the Account Owner, specifying the amendment and the proposed effective date. Unless otherwise required by law, the Account Owner is deemed to automatically consent to an amendment by continuing to maintain the Account after the Custodian has sent notice of an amendment, which means that the Account Owner's written approval is not required for the amendment to apply to the Account.

ARTICLE XV

1. Unless the Account Owner has expressly objected to the disclosure of such information, pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 14b-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Custodian is required to disclose the following information to each issuer of securities held under this Agreement from time to time: the Account Owner's name, address and holdings of securities of that issuer. To object to and prevent such disclosure under Rule 14b-2, the Account Owner must notify the Custodian in writing.
2. Any notice provided for in this Agreement shall be effective when the Custodian sends it to the Account Owner at the Account Owner's last known address in the Custodian's records. Any notice to be given to the Custodian shall be considered effective when the Custodian receives it.
3. This Agreement shall be governed by federal law and regulations and to the extent applicable, the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. If the Account was not opened in person at a branch office, but by mail, telephone, over the internet or other means, and the Account Owner resides, or maintains a residence, in a state where the Custodian operates a branch office, this Agreement will be governed by the laws and regulations of the United States and to the extent applicable, the laws of the state of such residence.

If the Account Owner does not reside, or maintain a residence, in a state where the Custodian operates a branch office and the Account was opened by mail, telephone, over the internet or by other means, this Agreement will be governed by the laws and regulations of the United States and to the extent applicable, the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The foregoing provisions shall apply without giving effect to any choice of law rules purporting to require the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Any lawsuits, claims or other proceedings arising from or relating to the Account or this Agreement, including without limitation, the enforcement of the Arbitration provisions hereof, shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the state whose law governs this Agreement, without regard to any conflicting choice of law rules. Venue shall lie in the same state as the law governing this Agreement, exclusive of any other state.

4. The Account shall be maintained for the exclusive benefit of the Account Owner or his or her Beneficiaries and may not be attached or alienated, unless permitted by law.

5. Notwithstanding Article VI, distribution of funds from the Account may be subject to reasonable restrictions on frequency or minimum amounts established by the Custodian and communicated in advance to the Account Owner in the Health Savings Deposit Account Agreement or elsewhere in this Agreement.
6. The Account Owner may repay to the Account any amount distributed from the Account because of a mistake of fact due to reasonable cause that an expense paid or reimbursed by the Account was a Qualified Medical Expense, by no later than April 15 of the year following the year the Account Owner knew or should have known the distribution was a mistake. The Custodian may rely on the Account Owner's representation that the distribution was a mistake that qualifies for a return as provided herein.
7. Notwithstanding Article I, the Custodian may require the Account Owner to furnish written evidence that any property comprising all or part of any Rollover Contribution qualifies as a "rollover contribution" under Code Section 223 prior to accepting the contribution as a rollover.
8. The Account Owner acknowledges that he or she has received and read this Agreement. As such, the Account Owner agrees to all terms of this Agreement, and further agrees that the information in the Account Owner's Health Savings Account Application is true and accurate as of the date thereof.

- 21. International ACH Transactions. If your transactions originates from a financial agency that is outside of the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, it may be subject to additional review for compliance with the rules of the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). If additional review is required, the international ACH transaction will not be available to you until it passes final verification.
- 22. Notice of Receipt. Under the Operating Rules and Guidelines of NACHA, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your Deposit Account, Depository and Custodian are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item and Depository and Custodian will not do so. However, Depository and Custodian will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements Custodian provides to you.
- 23. Choice of Law. Depository may accept on your behalf payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more ACH operators and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state where the Deposit Account is opened as provided by the Operating Rules and Guidelines of NACHA, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your Deposit Account.
- 24. Payment of Interest. If this is an interest bearing account, the interest is calculated and paid in accordance with the Disclosures.
- 25. Checks. All negotiable paper ("checks") presented for deposit must be in a format that can be processed and Depository may refuse to accept any check that does not meet this requirement. All endorsements on the reverse side of any check deposited into your Deposit Account or on any check issued by you must be placed on the left side of the check when looking at it from the front, and must be placed so as to not go beyond an area located 1-1/2 inches from the left edge of the check when looking at it from the front. It is your responsibility to ensure that this requirement is met and you are responsible for any loss incurred by Depository for failure of an endorsement to meet this requirement.

- 26. Substitute Checks. To make check processing faster, federal law permits financial institutions to replace original checks with “substitute checks.” These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: “This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check.” You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check. Some or all of the checks that you receive back from Depository may be substitute check(s).
- 27. Non-Sufficient Funds. If your Deposit Account lacks sufficient available funds to pay a check, preauthorized transfer, or other debit activity presented for payment, Depository may return such item for non-sufficient funds and will charge you a fee as provided in the Disclosures. Depository’s processing order is: All credit transactions are processed first. Debits, or withdrawals, from your Deposit Account will be processed as follows: electronic items such as ATM and Pre- Authorized transactions than checks. The items are processed in the order received within each category.
- 28. Stop Payments. If you request Depository to stop payment on a check you have written, or on a preauthorized transfer, you will give written or other confirmation as allowed by Depository within 14 days of making the request. If you fail to confirm an oral stop payment request within the 14 days, Depository reserves the right to cancel the request. Requests to stop all future payments on a preauthorized transfer may require additional documentation to be supplied to Depository. Your stop payment request must describe the item or account with reasonable certainty, and Depository must receive the request in a time and way that gives Depository a reasonable opportunity to act on it. A stop payment on a check you have written will remain in effect for 6 months or until Depository receives written revocation of the stop payment, whichever occurs first. A stop payment on a preauthorized transfer will remain in effect until Depository receives a withdrawal of the stop payment request or the return of the debit entry(ies), whichever occurs first. You will be charged a fee every time you request a stop payment, even if it is a continuation of a previous stop payment request. You understand that Depository may accept the stop payment request from any of the joint owners of the account, regardless of who signed the check or authorized the transfer. Depository’s acceptance of a stop payment request does not constitute a representation by Depository that the item has not already been paid or that Depository has had a reasonable opportunity to act on the request. Depository may accept a stop payment request on lost or stolen checks, whether a single check or a series, unless Depository’s policy requires that Depository open a new account for you to ensure your security.

- 29. Statements. Custodian will provide you with a periodic statement showing the Deposit Account activity. The Account Owner who receives this statement is the agent for his/her co-account holder(s) for purposes of receiving the statement and items. You must notify Custodian within 30 days after Custodian mails or otherwise make the statement available to you of any discrepancies. If you fail to notify Custodian, you will have no claim against Depository. However, if the discrepancy is the result of an electronic fund transfer, the provisions of the Disclosures will control its resolution. If you do not receive a statement from Custodian because you have failed to claim it or have supplied Custodian with an incorrect address, Custodian may stop sending your statements until you specifically make written request that Custodian resume sending your statements and you supply Custodian with a proper address.
- 30. Stale or Postdated Checks. Depository reserves the right to pay or dishonor a check more than 6 months old without prior notice to you. If you can write checks on your account, you agree not to postdate any check drawn on the account. If you do and the check is presented for payment before the date of the check, Depository may pay it or return it unpaid. Depository is not liable to you for paying any stale or postdated check, and you agree to reimburse Depository for any loss Depository might suffer, as long as Depository acted in good faith or exercised ordinary care. Any damages that you incur, and which Depository may be liable for, are limited to actual damages not to exceed the amount of the check.
- 31. Check Safekeeping. If you utilize a check safekeeping or any other system offered by Depository for the retention of your checks, you understand that the canceled checks will be retained by Depository and destroyed after a reasonable time period or as required by law. At your request, Depository will provide without charge up to 25 canceled instruments or legible copies of the fronts and backs thereof per calendar year. Additional copies may be subject to a fee, as indicated in the Schedule of Fees or Disclosures. If for any reason Depository cannot provide you with a copy of a check, Depository's liability will be limited to the lesser of the face amount of the check or the actual damages sustained by you.
- 32. Facsimile Signatures. You authorize Depository, at any time, to charge you for all checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, that are drawn on Depository regardless of by whom or by what means the facsimile signature(s) may have been affixed so long as they resemble the facsimile signature specimen in our files and contain the required number of signatures for this purpose.

- 33. Restrictive Legends. Depository is not required to honor any restrictive legend on checks you write unless Depository has agreed to the restriction in a writing signed by an officer of Depository. Examples of restrictive legends are “must be presented within 90 days” or “not valid for more than $1,000.00.”
- 34. No Waiver. You understand and agree that no delay or failure on Depository’s part to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege available to Depository under this Agreement shall affect or preclude Depository’s future exercise of that right, remedy, power or privilege.
- 35. Negative Balances. According to the Internal Revenue Code Section 4975, if an HSA transaction results in a negative balance, the HSA will cease to be an HSA on the first day of the year in which the prohibited transaction occurred. The account will be closed.

HEALTH SAVINGS ACCOUNT FUNDS AVAILABILITY DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

This agreement sets out the Terms and Conditions (Terms) upon which Depository will place a hold on deposits made to your Deposit Account before funds are available for your withdrawal. This is the Funds Availability Policy applicable to the Deposit Account and serves as a legally binding agreement between you, Custodian and Depository. Please read this Funds Availability Disclosure Agreement carefully and keep a copy for your records. In summary our Policy is to make your funds available on the First Business Day after the day of deposit. Please refer to the section DETERMINING THE AVAILABILITY OF YOUR DEPOSIT for the complete policy.

For purposes of this Health Savings Account Funds Availability Disclosure Agreement, the terms "you"/"your" refer to the Account Owner and the terms "our"/"we"/"us" refer to the Depository. The term "account" includes your Health Savings Account and the Deposit Account.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Determining The Availability Of Your Deposit. The length of the delay varies depending on the type of deposit and is explained below. When we delay your ability to withdraw funds from a deposit, you may not withdraw the funds in cash, receive a preauthorization and we will not pay checks you have written on your account by using these funds. Even after we have made funds available to you and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

When we delay your ability to withdraw funds, the length of the delay is counted in Business Days from the day of your deposit. The term "Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or federally declared legal holiday, and the term "Banking Day" means that part of any Business Day on which we are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of our banking functions.

If you make a deposit before the close of business on a Business Day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the close of business or on a day that we are not open, we will consider the deposit made on the next Business Day we are open.

AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

Same Day Availability. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account, excluding External Funds Transfers, will be available on the day we receive the deposit. In addition, funds from deposits of cash (if made in person to an employee of Avidia Bank), and wire transfers, will also be available on the day of deposit.

Next Day Availability. Funds from deposits of U.S. Treasury checks (if payable to you and deposited into your account), U.S. Postal Service Money Orders (if payable to you and deposited into your account, and the deposit is made in person to an employee of Avidia Bank), Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank checks (If payable to you and deposited into your Account, and the deposit is made in person to an employee of Avidia Bank), State or Local Government checks (if payable to you and deposited into your Account, and the deposit is made in person to an employee of Avidia Bank), Cashier's, Certified, or Teller's checks (if payable to you and deposited into your Account, and the deposit is made in person to an employee of Avidia Bank), and checks drawn on us are available on the first Business Day after the day of your deposit.

If you do not make your deposit in person to an employee of Avidia Bank (for example, if you mail the deposit), funds from these deposits will be available no later than the second Business Day after the day of your deposit.

Other Check Deposits. Funds from all other check deposits will be available no later than the second Business Day after the day of deposit. The first $300 of your deposits, however, may be available by the first Business Day after the day of deposit.

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY

If you receive an electronic direct deposit as a result of an External Funds Transfer initiated by you while using Avidia Bank's Consumer Internet Banking application, then those funds will become available no later than five business days after you initiate the Transfer.

In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you according to the previously stated availability schedule. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. The first $300.00 of your deposits, however, may be available by the first Business Day after the day of deposit.

If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available to you according to the previously stated availability schedule, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. If you need the funds from a deposit right away, ask when the funds will be available.

Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances: (a) if we believe a check you deposit will not be paid; (b) if you deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 on any one day; (c) if you redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid; (d) if you have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months; or (e) if an emergency condition arises that would not enable us to make the funds available to you, such as the failure of computer or communications equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your availability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the fifth business day after the day of your deposit. If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask when the funds will be available.

SPECIAL RULES FOR NEW ACCOUNTS

If you are a new customer, the following special rules may apply during the first 30 days your account is opened.

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account, excluding External Funds Transfers, will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you (and you may have to use a special deposit slip). The excess over $5,525 will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,525 will not be available until the second business day after the day of deposit. Funds from all other deposits will be available no later than the second Business Day after the day of your deposit.
